

Press Announcement:

For Immediate Release: November 15, 2011

Aetos Systems, Inc. selected as NASA Marshall Space Flight Center 2011 Small Business Prime Contractor of the Year

Aetos Systems, Inc. announced today that it is the recipient of the NASA Marshall Space Flight Center 2011 Small Business Prime of the Year Award. The award, which is part of the Small Business Industry Awards given by NASA's Office of Small Business Programs, recognizes outstanding individuals and companies that support NASA in achieving its mission and significantly contribute to the agency's small business program. Aetos was recognized locally on September 29th, at the Marshall Small Business Alliance Meeting for their outstanding support provided under the Building Automation Systems Support for Center Operations contract at MSFC.

NASA Administrator Charles F. Bolden, Jr. presented the award to Aetos' President and CEO, Donna Coleman, at the 4th Annual NASA Small Business Symposium and Awards Ceremony in Herndon, Virginia on November 4, 2011. "It is truly an honor to have been selected by NASA Marshall for this award, Aetos' President, Donna Coleman said." "Aetos is committed to the mission of NASA and we continue to believe NASA is a critical component in the success of our Nation and it's goal of reaching beyond today's capabilities."

Aetos is a product and services company with capabilities in IT Services, Business Management, Energy Management and Engineering Services. Our expertise and technology provide the catalyst, helping organizations everywhere to be more efficient, more responsive and more effective.

For More Information contact: Donna C. Coleman at donna.coleman@aetossystems.com